

The Style Invitational

WEEK 268: WHAT KIND OF FOAL AM I?

Mate Fleet Admiral with Nudge and name the foal Fleet Enema.

Mate Dabney Carr with Mr. Freeze and name the foal Dabney Coldman.

Mate Missionary with Over the Top and name the foal Man on Top.

Mate Buff with Wild Colony and name the foal Nudist Colony.

This Week's Contest was proposed, as it is every year, by Mike "Mikey the Tout" Hammer of Washington, who wins a trophy in the form of a small but dignified replica of a horse's arse. The contest is to take the names of this year's Triple Crown nominees, mate any two of them, and propose a name for their foal.

First runner-up gets the tacky but estimable Style Invitational Loser Pen. Other runners-up receive the coveted Style Invitational Loser T-shirt. Honorable Mentions get the mildly sought-after Style Invitational bumper sticker. Winners will be selected on the basis of humor and originality. Mail your entries to The Style Invitational, Week 268, c/o The Washington Post, 1150 15th St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20071, fax them to 202-334-4312 or submit them via Internet to this address: losers@washpost.com. Internet users: Please indicate the week number in the "subject" field. Entries must be received on or before Monday, May 11. Please include your address and phone number. Winners will be announced three weeks from today. Editors reserve the right to alter entries for taste, humor or appropriateness. No purchase necessary. Today's Number No One Calls was written by Jennifer Hart of Arlington. Employees of The Washington Post, and members of their immediate families, are not eligible for prizes.

The list is below. You must adhere to the single rule of horse naming: The foal's name must be contained within 18 characters, including spaces. As always, ignore the gender of the horses if you happen to know them. First-prize winner receives a pair of genuine size 5 musical lace panties that play "You Are My Sunshine." They are worth $25.

REPORT FROM WEEK 265,

in which we asked you to come up with new products that are combinations of two existing products, like the spork. But first, a quick attaboy to the Style Invitational's own Robert Staake, of the St. Louis, Mo., Staakes. Bob has won the newspaper illustration Cartoonist of the Year "Reuben" award from the National Cartoonists Society. This is a highly prestigious honor that customarily makes cartoonists jack their fees right through the roof, extorting outlandish pay from the same kindhearted newspaper editors who had been nice enough to give the semiliterate slob a decent wage in return for what—a few chicken scrawlings? And look what their munificence gets them: economic blackmail from sleazy, greedy, piece-of-human-waste criminal ingrates who drink too much. Don't try it, Bob, or we'll ruin you, close you down tighter than a kettledrum in pickle juice. And, congratulations! Back to sporks:

◆ Fourth Runner-Up: The Slipscoop—A combination bedroom slipper and pooper scooper. No need to stop and bend over; simply slipscoop it up and place-kick it over the neighbor's fence. Three points! (Sunny C. Doman, Falls Church)

◆ Third Runner-Up: Rogocaine—A cross between Rogaine and cocaine. It grows nose hair. (Chuck Smith, Woodbridge)

◆ Second Runner-Up: Gromit—Combination syrup of ipecac and tile grout. Makes triumph out of tragedy when you don't quite make it to the toilet bowl. (Russ Beland, Springfield)

◆ First Runner-Up: The Fo'c'w'le'ha—A combination forecastle (fo'c's'le), gunwale (gunnel) and halfpenny (ha'p'n'y). I have no idea what it is, I just get a kick out of the idea that no one knows how to pronounce it. (Jonathan Paul, Garrett Park)

◆ And the winner of the Chinese Propaganda Record:

AK-486—A combination of an AK-47 and the RU-486 "morning after" pill. This assault weapon has an automatic-delay firing pin, permitting disgruntled postal workers to rethink their rage at the last minute. (T.J. Murphy, Arlington)

◆ Honorable Mentions:

The Sigmoidseat—A combination sigmoidoscope and deck chair, molded to resemble seats at the MCI arena. This chair allows you to watch the Wizards play on TV while staying at home, and you get the same sensation you'd have after shelling out $75 in the new arena. (T.J. Murphy, Arlington)

The Sport-futility vehicle—A combination futon and sport utility vehicle, this device is for people whose idea of off-road adventure is to pull off the road and take a nap. (Jennifer Hart, Arlington)

The Bordullo—Half brothel, half think tank. An establishment where Washington men go to pay for what they really want: Cogent policy analysis. (David Genser, Arlington)

The Escaladder—A combination escalator and ladder, similar to an escalator that you climb step by step. This device is often found in Metro stations. (Jennifer Hart, Arlington)

The Buzzclock—A combination buzz saw and alarm clock, this device activates a spinning blade in the headboard and a conveyor belt in the mattress after its snooze button is hit a third time. What time is it? Time to stop sawing wood! (Bob Dalton, Beaumont, Tex.)

The Pink—Pen and ink packaged together, so you don't have to keep refilling the pen. No muss, no fuss! (Russ Beland, Springfield)

The Bassipult—A sound-activated bassinet and catapult. Never again be bothered by Baby crying in the night. (Paul Kondis, Alexandria)

The Heliblower—A combination helicopter and leaf blower, for people who want to one-up their neighbor's annoyingly loud lawn-maintenance appliances. (Stephen Dudzik, Silver Spring)

The Remoilet—A combination remote channel changer and toilet. Not only do you not have to get up to change the channel, you don't have to get up for anything, ever. (Art Grinath, Takoma Park)

◆ And Last:

Circlepost—The Washington Post printed in a round format. I know this doesn't fit the contest, but it would fit my parrot cage nicely. (Joe Pnessa, Philadelphia)
