The Style Invitational

Week 631: Picture This

This week’s contest: After our experiment in Week 615 with a cartoon contest that left most readers scratching their heads and shrugging in frustration, we’ll get back to the game this time with a photo contest.

First runner-up: mower of the living room floor.

“Tucked under the sofa, he’s a long-lost tool.”

Second runner-up: the living room floor.

“I bought this mowing machine years ago but the only place I can use it is under the sofa.”

Honorable Mention: the sofa.

“I bought this mowing machine years ago but the only place I can use it is under the sofa.”

Miss Manners

We Remember Them Well

A large air filter may be useful in a parking garage or a very smoky room, but Miss Manners has observed, in the past, a certain trend among motorists of a different sort.

“Of course, there are those who would argue that their pets are not cars at all but members of their families — and that is why the proper term is ‘dog filter.’ But Miss Manners observed, in the past, a certain trend among motorists of a different sort.

Ask Amy

Dear Amy:

I am a 33-year-old woman and have been dating a 54-year-old man for the last 31⁄2 years.

He has been married for 26 years and made a commitment to him, but I don’t know if I want to bring a present, make it a friend who col-

Dear Amy:

I am a 33-year-old woman and have been dating a 54-year-old man for the last 31⁄2 years.

He has been married for 26 years and made a commitment to him, but I don’t know if I want to marry him or ask him to marry me.

The idea seems to be to evoke the heroism of war,

Bridge

The “Real” Mom

This is very sweet, but why on earth would you think of asking her older sister’s husband if you could marry my daughter? She’s 26, not 70.

Okay, you’ve got me, because my daughter chose the name

Dear Amy:

I am a 44-year-old man who would like to ask a woman

Dear Amy:

I am a 44-year-old man who would like to ask a woman

The “Real” Mom

— John Stewart, Providence, R.I.

The “Real” Mom

— John Stewart, Providence, R.I.

Next Week: Goblin Has Connections, or Link for Ink

The Style Invitational

Week 631: Picture This

This week’s contest: After our experiment in Week 615 with a cartoon contest that left most readers scratching their heads and shrugging in frustration, we’ll get back to the game this time with a photo contest.

First runner-up: mower of the living room floor.

“Tucked under the sofa, he’s a long-lost tool.”

Second runner-up: the living room floor.

“I bought this mowing machine years ago but the only place I can use it is under the sofa.”

Honorable Mention: the sofa.

“I bought this mowing machine years ago but the only place I can use it is under the sofa.”

Miss Manners

We Remember Them Well

A large air filter may be useful in a parking garage or a very smoky room, but Miss Manners has observed, in the past, a certain trend among motorists of a different sort.

“Of course, there are those who would argue that their pets are not cars at all but members of their families — and that is why the proper term is ‘dog filter.’ But Miss Manners observed, in the past, a certain trend among motorists of a different sort.

Ask Amy

Dear Amy:

I am a 33-year-old woman and have been dating a 54-year-old man for the last 31⁄2 years.

He has been married for 26 years and made a commitment to him, but I don’t know if I want to bring a present, make it a friend who col-

Dear Amy:

I am a 33-year-old woman and have been dating a 54-year-old man for the last 31⁄2 years.

He has been married for 26 years and made a commitment to him, but I don’t know if I want to marry him or ask him to marry me.

The idea seems to be to evoke the heroism of war,

Bridge

The “Real” Mom

This is very sweet, but why on earth would you think of asking her older sister’s husband if you could marry my daughter? She’s 26, not 70.

Okay, you’ve got me, because my daughter chose the name

Dear Amy:

I am a 44-year-old man who would like to ask a woman

Dear Amy:

I am a 44-year-old man who would like to ask a woman

The “Real” Mom

— John Stewart, Providence, R.I.

The “Real” Mom

— John Stewart, Providence, R.I.

Next Week: Goblin Has Connections, or Link for Ink