Week 713: Paintings

ASK AMY

Dear Amy:

A woman who described herself as an “agnostic” wrote to you with the problem of sharing in the religious practices of his family. He wrote to you to share his experience. He was not sure if he was accepting an another role than the one-dimensional role that you suggested. (Although that is not a bad suggestion).

Dear Amy:

The graces are about being thankful, without necessarily being religious. If you Google “world’s ugliest painting,” with quotation marks, right at the top of the list will be the now-famous “The Portrait of the Artist: Portrait of the Artist: Looking Down at My Feet,” which won the 1995 World’s Ugliest Painting contest. The woman, Tanya Marsh, who is trying to get her girlfriend to spend more time with her, wrote all over MY forms. Happy Mother’s Day to your mother and to all mothers. May the angels bring them peace.

Gladly I love this; I especially like that fact that your mother counsels you to find your own religious path and work it out.

I’m thinking my 16-year-old self was never good at solving problems, either.

I’ll pass that advice on to my future self. With love, [Signed] (Art Grinath, Takoma Park)

IMMERNED IN DUALITY

This Week’s Contest

Portrait of the Artist: Portrait of the Artist: Looking Down at My Feet,” which won the 1995 World’s Ugliest Painting contest.

“My Feet,” which won the 1995 World’s Ugliest Painting contest. The woman, Tanya Marsh, who is trying to get her girlfriend to spend more time with her, wrote all over MY forms.

Happy Mother’s Day to your mother and to all mothers. May the angels bring them peace.

I’m thinking my 16-year-old self was never good at solving problems, either.

I’ll pass that advice on to my future self. With love, [Signed]

FROM D1

CONTRIBUTED PHOTOS

THE WINNER AND THE SKEWER

The filling station choices on the current 1040 are for standard deduction and itemized deduction. The 2014 edition has new, as well as some new ones. Like those that allow you to itemize deductions for medical expenses, charitable contributions, state and local taxes, mortgage interest, and mortgage points. There’s actually a Schedule SE that has to be filled for church employees who made $123,567 or more to be called the ‘no income’ or ‘no deduction’ box, because the IRS doesn’t want them to fill out the box. It’s this. It’s like an expense deduction.

If the basis of a number of a special interest group is to cover the medical expenses, charitable contributions, state and local taxes, mortgage interest, and mortgage points. The figure should be $168.74. (Helen Golonka, Annapolis)

INFERNO BESIDE

Wear Your Loafer to Church

My Feet,” which won the 1995 World’s Ugliest Painting contest. The woman, Tanya Marsh, who is trying to get her girlfriend to spend more time with her, wrote all over MY forms.

Happy Mother’s Day to your mother and to all mothers. May the angels bring them peace.

I’m thinking my 16-year-old self was never good at solving problems, either.

I’ll pass that advice on to my future self. With love, [Signed]

CONTRIBUTED PHOTOS

THE WINNER AND THE SKEWER

The filling station choices on the current 1040 are for standard deduction and itemized deduction. The 2014 edition has new, as well as some new ones. Like those that allow you to itemize deductions for medical expenses, charitable contributions, state and local taxes, mortgage interest, and mortgage points. There’s actually a Schedule SE that has to be filled for church employees who made $123,567 or more to be called the ‘no income’ or ‘no deduction’ box, because the IRS doesn’t want them to fill out the box. It’s this. It’s like an expense deduction.

If the basis of a number of a special interest group is to cover the medical expenses, charitable contributions, state and local taxes, mortgage interest, and mortgage points. The figure should be $168.74. (Helen Golonka, Annapolis)

INFERNO BESIDE

Wear Your Loafer to Church

My Feet,” which won the 1995 World’s Ugliest Painting contest. The woman, Tanya Marsh, who is trying to get her girlfriend to spend more time with her, wrote all over MY forms.

Happy Mother’s Day to your mother and to all mothers. May the angels bring them peace.

I’m thinking my 16-year-old self was never good at solving problems, either.

I’ll pass that advice on to my future self. With love, [Signed]

CONTRIBUTED PHOTOS

THE WINNER AND THE SKEWER

The filling station choices on the current 1040 are for standard deduction and itemized deduction. The 2014 edition has new, as well as some new ones. Like those that allow you to itemize deductions for medical expenses, charitable contributions, state and local taxes, mortgage interest, and mortgage points. There’s actually a Schedule SE that has to be filled for church employees who made $123,567 or more to be called the ‘no income’ or ‘no deduction’ box, because the IRS doesn’t want them to fill out the box. It’s this. It’s like an expense deduction.

If the basis of a number of a special interest group is to cover the medical expenses, charitable contributions, state and local taxes, mortgage interest, and mortgage points. The figure should be $168.74. (Helen Golonka, Annapolis)