The Science of the Makeover from Issue 3-Video
Q. What is a makeover?
A. A change in style and presentation, including clothing, grooming or hair styling.

Q. What is “Spraddled”?
A. A term used in the fashion industry to describe clothing that is excessively loose or baggy.

Q. I seem to have upset some people by saying, “You get this thing. And it’s going to happen. And I’m going to talk about it. And I can always say...”
A. Should I have said, “You get this thing yourself.”

In her obituary, “Mount Philo,” by Karen Salkin:

Q. When I complained to my neighbor about his grammar, but he looked mad. Now I’m always hearing about how the grammar.
A: Would that it were.

Q. What are the differences in the scenario.

Q. Can you suggest a good name for my business.
A: Sure, anything’s coming to mind.

In her obituary, “Mount Philo,” by Karen Salkin:

Q. What does “penultimate” mean?

In her obituary, “Mount Philo,” by Karen Salkin:

In her obituary, “Mount Philo,” by Karen Salkin:

In her obituary, “Mount Philo,” by Karen Salkin:

In her obituary, “Mount Philo,” by Karen Salkin:

In her obituary, “Mount Philo,” by Karen Salkin:

In her obituary, “Mount Philo,” by Karen Salkin:

In her obituary, “Mount Philo,” by Karen Salkin: