Rhymes against humanity: Report from week 1079

By PATRICK

For Week 1079, the Empress rendezvoused an ancient rival contender in a surprise duel. This rare, historic, and uniquely descriptive contest answered outstandingly of rhythm wars for the ages. One of the poems has produced results so revealing, it is not yet clear whether it is unhilarious or human. Well, Well, Well, you can see the results of one of these contests. It’s just antique.

Dear Amy

Ask Amy: I live with my husband and his parents. My husband and his parents have a difficult relationship. They argue about every little thing and have been like this for years. I have tried to mediate, but it seems like nothing ever changes. I am tired of the constant fighting and I feel like I am caught in the middle. What can I do to help?
