New contest for Week 1117: You got another sing coming

In Week 1117, the Empress stands in her glory, taking on any challenge. This week’s contest asks for a name for a song about a love affair or other personal occasion (ivalent’s Day, wedding or birthday). As always, we look forward to hearing from you. As always, keep in mind that the name be no more than 8 letters. As usual, we also ask that you provide a short rationale for the name you submit. We will let you know the results by Monday, March 30.

A topic or person linked to the contest:

One of the descriptions of lovely Venus is love. And, we’ll take the liberty to remind the rest of this column’s paradigm that doesn’t quite last too long. You don’t have to be a rocket scientist to figure out that this contest is one that is centered on Venus, the planet of love. Overjoyed, the Empress stands in her glory, taking on any challenge. This week the Empress asks for a name for a song about a love affair or other personal occasion (Valentine’s Day, wedding or birthday). As always, we look forward to hearing from you. As always, keep in mind that the name be no more than 8 letters. As usual, we also ask that you provide a short rationale for the name you submit. We will let you know the results by Monday, March 30.

A topic or person linked to the contest:

One of the descriptions of lovely Venus is love. And, we’ll take the liberty to remind the rest of this column’s paradigm that doesn’t quite last too long. You don’t have to be a rocket scientist to figure out that this contest is one that is centered on Venus, the planet of love. Overjoyed, the Empress stands in her glory, taking on any challenge. This week the Empress asks for a name for a song about a love affair or other personal occasion (Valentine’s Day, wedding or birthday). As always, we look forward to hearing from you. As always, keep in mind that the name be no more than 8 letters. As usual, we also ask that you provide a short rationale for the name you submit. We will let you know the results by Monday, March 30.

A topic or person linked to the contest:

One of the descriptions of lovely Venus is love. And, we’ll take the liberty to remind the rest of this column’s paradigm that doesn’t quite last too long. You don’t have to be a rocket scientist to figure out that this contest is one that is centered on Venus, the planet of love. Overjoyed, the Empress stands in her glory, taking on any challenge. This week the Empress asks for a name for a song about a love affair or other personal occasion (Valentine’s Day, wedding or birthday). As always, we look forward to hearing from you. As always, keep in mind that the name be no more than 8 letters. As usual, we also ask that you provide a short rationale for the name you submit. We will let you know the results by Monday, March 30.