ACROSS
1 Put blacktop on, perhaps
9 Goof up
14 Romantic’s quest
15 Mischief maker
16 His theory on gravitational
17 Shofar source
58 Initials for an oversharer

BY PATRICK JORDAN
© 2016 CROSSYNERGY SYNDICATE LLC

Answer to last week

Across
Epcot Center? (6)
Airport (5)
Sibilant summons (9)
Like a liquidation item (9)
Romantic’s quest (7)
Goof up (4)

Down
Church, Va. (4)
Afflicts primarily parents of young occurring on the soles of the feet. (9)
IMPALEGO: munching Cheetos. (Jeff Shirley)
FOPAW: stink; therefore I am. (Jon FARTESIANS: kitty that attacks without warning. PURRANHA: only other blot of Invite ink in Gawen, Falls Church, Va., a First DAYLUGES: through the D.C. area. (Joy
CARNIBORE:
BIMBROS:

New contest for Week 1179: Blasted alphabetical contest...

In the world of Scrabble, there are many different ways to enjoy the game. Perhaps the most popular is the standard game, where players take turns placing tiles on a game board to form words. But for those who want a challenge, there are many other options available. One such option is the Blasted Alphabetical Contest, which is a unique way to play Scrabble.

In this contest, players are given a set of tiles with letters that are randomly drawn from the Scrabble box. These tiles are then placed on a special game board that is designed to resemble the letters of the alphabet. Players then use these tiles to form words that are placed on the board in alphabetical order.

The objective of the contest is to form as many words as possible using the tiles provided. Players must use all of the tiles on their turn, and they are not allowed to use any of the tiles that have already been used by other players. The first player to use all of the tiles on their turn wins the game.

This contest is a great way to challenge yourself and your friends to think outside the box and come up with creative words and strategies. It also allows for a lot of flexibility in terms of word choice, as players can use any word that is valid in the Scrabble dictionary. Overall, the Blasted Alphabetical Contest is a fun and unique way to enjoy Scrabble that is sure to keep you and your friends entertained for hours.