DEFinitions: Winning abbreviations

BY BART FREYER

In Week 220 we continue three-line clues that are alphabetized with some DEF, THE, IF, etc., phrases.
Examples:
If the clue is the first line, the answer is in parentheses, as
Shed, (Jiles) at the end of the puzzle.
In Week 220 we continue three-line clues that are
alphabetized with some DEF, THE, IF, etc., phrases.
Examples:
If the clue is the first line, the answer is in parentheses, as
Shed, (Jiles) at the end of the puzzle.

DEFlinitions: Winning abbreviations

BY BART FREYER

In Week 220 we continue three-line clues that are
alphabetized with some DEF, THE, IF, etc., phrases.
Examples:
If the clue is the first line, the answer is in parentheses, as
Shed, (Jiles) at the end of the puzzle.
In Week 220 we continue three-line clues that are
alphabetized with some DEF, THE, IF, etc., phrases.
Examples:
If the clue is the first line, the answer is in parentheses, as
Shed, (Jiles) at the end of the puzzle.

DEFlinitions: Winning abbreviations

BY BART FREYER

In Week 220 we continue three-line clues that are
alphabetized with some DEF, THE, IF, etc., phrases.
Examples:
If the clue is the first line, the answer is in parentheses, as
Shed, (Jiles) at the end of the puzzle.
In Week 220 we continue three-line clues that are
alphabetized with some DEF, THE, IF, etc., phrases.
Examples:
If the clue is the first line, the answer is in parentheses, as Shed, (Jiles) at the end of the puzzle.