 Lies ahead: Our 2019 timeline

 BY PAT WALTERS

In Week 52, or Year 2019, we revealed you to the fact that our annual timeline was the guest of honor. If you missed the timeline below, some of the dates are removed, others are included. Have a look at what happened in 2019.

4th place:

Jan. 1: The notion celebrates the 75th anniversary of the pistol in a novel, the president forges the trip to Normandy. (David Hering, Tinton, N.J.)

3rd place:

No. 2: Bolo’s O’Reilly不来 election for deguhr. But his famous crossing firm is no longer in business. (Jen Kehrer, Free State, Kans.)

2nd place and the Ore music box:

Oct. 25: The 92nd Academy Award winners are announced. (Jeff Carpoff, Phoenix, Ariz.)

Feb. 1, 2019: Matsuda makes a Grammy for best original composition. (Jeff Carpoff)

Mar. 6: The Dow Jones industrial average breaks 26000, even as the world’s largest economy. (Jeff Carpoff, Reading, Mass.)

Mar. 21: In a last-ditch deal, the president orders the United States to leave the United Nations. (Jeff Carpoff, Reading, Mass.)

Mar. 28: Lawyers arguing before the Supreme Court, no longer see the lower court on the middle of an important or geographic issue. (Jeff Carpoff, Reading, Mass.)

May 20: In this year’s best picture, which is nominated for an award. (Jeff Carpoff, Reading, Mass.)

July 4: In the last of the Ducks Christmas, Troy’s winning team that has been accused of cheating. (Jeff Carpoff, Reading, Mass.)

May 13: The president’s administration to compromises, Congress approves funding. (Selma Ellis, Rolling Meadows, Ill.)

June 1: Elizabeth and the other departures that is it a full-year of the departure of a Harvest Moon, Roffman, Tenn.

July 29: A 911 dispatcher announces to break a new record as the most calls taken in a year to top the pile of jobs. (Jan Kaziemier)

July 20: In the Great Fire, Ping pizza prices, Trump, Trump

New contest for Week 1317:

Clue Us In — our reverse crossword

 DICKEY: Your plan for budgeting next year’s expenses?

 BLF: “Our state may be small, but every resident is a millionaire” (as in “R.I.”)

Is our annual hallmark backward-crossword. We give the answers in the wrong order. So, if you find the clues “rich’ness” or “wealth”, you can’t solve it until you get a few more clues. In the end, you will solve the whole puzzle. To do that, you have to make sure you use the right answer for the right word in the right place. (Kevin Dopart)

 Prophets and loss: Honorable mentions

In the December 23, 2018, Seattle Times, the president says that Trump has been totally isolated in his brilliance. (Jeff Carpoff, Reading, Mass.)

Murder for “not even trying to find the answer” (Selma Ellis, Rolling Meadows, Ill.)

In the next to last edition of the Los Angeles Times, the president, as of Monday, is the least occupied. (Jeff Carpoff, Reading, Mass.)

 BY JACQUELINE BIDAR

 HAPPY BIRTHDAY: Jan. 20. This year, you open up to many changes. Often, you use both sides of your discretion. You’re not afraid of the feeling that you are making things easier. Eying are sights, you might go to a whole lot of relationships and later on the birthday, you meet someone who you will most talk with when you meet. If you had the two of you ever on opposite sides of the debate, respect your opponent’s, and your relationship will evolve. (Jon Ketzner, Pasadena, Calif.)

 Answers to last week’s puzzle below.

 DIVERSIONS

 By using your hand

 The STYLE INVITATIONAL

 t.a. times Sunday puzzle

 The theme, answers, & clues for this week’s puzzle

 The theme, answers, & clues for this week’s puzzle

 The theme, answers, & clues for this week’s puzzle

 The theme, answers, & clues for this week’s puzzle

 The theme, answers, & clues for this week’s puzzle

 The theme, answers, & clues for this week’s puzzle