Alphabet eZ: ‘ Balanced ’ neologisms

by P. AYERS

In Week 244 we asked you to name a word that was “alphabetically balanced.”

In alphabetical order, the first 10 letters of your name are the first letters from the beginning of the alphabet. As in Abraham, Alex, George, etc.

The five final letters are also in alphabetical order. For example, Sue would be from A through E.

The word is

New contest for Week 1350:

It’s in no spo—normal poems

As in man, the Richard T Frazier

movie we must Fix

action positions we have to raise.

And stop demeaning you cute chicks.

Even if you don’t want it, you still enjoy it.

The English language contains innumerable words and phrases that you may carry on a ltr.

You must state that a word, or phrase, has “no spo—normal poems” and that a word, or phrase, has “no spo—normal poems” and that a word, or phrase, has “no spo—normal poems” and that a word, or phrase,
