The Style Invitational

By Pat Myers

In Week 1359, you once again asked us to define a word or phrase and present at least six clues that define or give a clue to the word or phrase that appears in the world. The Vivacious Sponsor offers: "A project that was to be a bad idea. You might give up on, letting it go for another job."

Mystery word: intractable

Clues:

1. "A stubborn, unchangeable, or recalcitrant situation, often characterized by conflict or resistance to change.
2. "Difficult to control or manage; resistant to efforts to suppress or subdue.
3. "Difficult to understand or explain; resistant to interpretation.
4. "Difficult to predict or control; resistant to forecasting.
5. "Difficult to accept or understand; resistant to belief.
6. "Difficult to treat or manage; resistant to therapy or intervention."
