Style Invitational Week 1174: Colt Following — it’s time for the grandfoals

On Kentucky Derby weekend, we trot out this year’s winning horse names — and saddle up Generation B.

Even though the Empress just finished tossing approximately 3,950 of the Week 1170 “foal” names in her virtual wastebasket — the rest of them got ink today — she’s haughtily confident that the Loser Community will trot right back into the starting gate for the Invite’s 11th annual “grandfoal” contest.

This week: “Breed” any two of the 57 foal names that got ink this week and name the offspring to reflect both parents’ names, in the style of the first-generation combinations published today. Just as for the first-round contest, the names are limited to 18 characters including spaces and punctuation marks. As always, don’t “breed” three horses together, and don’t give the foal a name that’s on the list. As always, you may submit as many as 25 names. Note: Be sure to spell the parents’ names as they’re printed here.

Winner gets the Inkin’ Memorial, the Lincoln statue bobblehead that is the official Style Invitational trophy. And speaking of animal romance: Second place receives, direct from New Zealand from Loser Bruce Alter . . . well, this week it should be jockey shorts, but it’s a pair of souvenir boxers with little cartoon kiwi birds crudely romancing little cartoon sheep. The waistband proudly says “New Zealand” all around. This lovely garment will make you look your best Down Under.

Other runners-up win their choice of a yearned-for Loser Mug, the older-model “This Is Your Brain on Mugs” mug.
or a vintage Loser T-shirt. Honorable mentions get one of our lusted-after Loser magnets, “Magnet Dum Laude” or “Falling Jest Short.” First Offenders receive a smelly tree-shaped air “freshener” (FirStink for their first ink). Email entries to losers@washpost.com. Deadline is Monday night, May 16; results published June 5 (online June 2). You may submit up to 25 entries per contest. Include “Week 1174” in your email subject line or it might be ignored as spam. Include your real name, postal address and phone number with your entry. See contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/InvRules. The headline for this week’s results is by Tom Witte; the honorable-mentions subhead is by Beverley Sharp. THE PONY-MA PAPERS: THIS YEAR’S TOP FOAL NAMES

In Week 1170, our 22nd annual foal-“breeding” contest, we gave you a list of 100 of the horses nominated for this year’s Triple Crown races and asked you to “breed” any two and name the “foal.” The field was, as usual, highly crowded — just about 4,000 entries — and, as usual, of Triple Crown quality: The Empress’s “shortlist” of worthies topped 250 names. Lots of First Offenders this week, as well as ink for several Losers who play only the horses each year — such as Mary Lee Fox Roe, who, before the Empress started the 25-entry limit, would send in 600 foal names in a single contest. The Empress’s job was made immeasurably more manageable by the entry-sorting program created by Loser Jonathan Hardis. (Jonathan could probably measure that, too; he works for the National Institute of Standards and Technology.)
