Regular members of the Loser Community, you know the drill. New readers, meet the drill. Meet the new readers. This week: Provide a funny caption for any of the cartoons above, created as always by Our Own (once a week, anyway) Bob Stalke. It can be either a description or a quote of the character(s) in the picture. You may submit up to a total of 25 entries among the four pictures; begin each entry "Picture A:" (or whichever letter), followed by the entry on the same line as that heading. (This will let the Empress sort the captions by picture, making her much more likely to be in a good mood when judging. You don’t want her to be sullen when she’s reading your hilarious humor, do you?)

Submit entries at this website: wapo.st/enter-invite-1256 (all lowercase).

Winner gets the Lose Cannon, our Style Invitational trophy. Second place receives a brand-new ball cap and koozie, or drink can holder, promoting an industrial ceiling fan company called Big Ass Fans. So you’ll have your New Year’s Eve party wear all ready to go. Donated by Big Loser Dave Prevar.

Other runners-up win our "You Gotta Play to Lose" Loser Mug or our Grossery Bag, "I Got a B in Funnanship." Honorable mentions get one of our lusted-after Loser magnets, "No Childishness Left Behind" or "Magnum Dopus." First Offenders receive only a smelly tree-shaped air "freshener" (FInStink for their first ink). Deadline is Monday night, Dec. 11; results published Dec. 31 (online Dec. 28). See general contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/InvRules. The headline "Har Drugs" was submitted by both Chris Doyle and Jesse Frankovich; Jesse also wrote the honorable-mentions subhead. We lost a battle but won the war.
Charlie Craig and David Mullins could go back into Masterpiece Cakeshop and request a cake — and Jack Phillips would have no First Amendment right to turn them away.
