Style Invitational Week 1318: Love the tiny tail stain* — an anagram contest

Plus our biennial ‘joint legislation’ winners combining Congress members’ names

Original: We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. (Thomas Jefferson, the Declaration of Independence, 1776)

Anagrams to: What is evident is that women are not treated that equitably. The late framers structured this for penile people. Guys create and enact the laws. The gals are there behind their hubby, alienated. Oh, refill, hon? (Kevin Dopart, Week 1051, 2013)

Original: The Washington Post Style Invitational

Anagrams to: I have total nitwits pen nasty loo things (Chris Doyle, Week 1051)

The Loser Community has proved itself amazingly adept at rearranging letters into clever anagrams. (In fact, if you join the Style Invitational Devotees group on Facebook, the Devs will anagram your name inside out.)
Recently we had a contest for anagrams of movie titles; this week we hark back to our broader contests of 2013 and 2004. This week’s Create an anagram — a phrase or sentence with the letters rearranged — of any text (except merely someone’s name) of any length, as in the examples above. You must use every letter in your original exactly once; you may add any punctuation or capitalization you like. For short phrases, you might want to rearrange Scrabble tiles, but it’s not cheating to use such free computer programs as Anagram Artist by one-time Loser Mike Keith. And before you send in your entry, please use the quickie Anagram Checker at Wordsmith.org, which will instantly tell you if you’ve left out a letter or added an extra one.

“It’s an anagram of “The Style Invitational.” But you got that, right?”

Submit entries at wapo.st/enter-invite-1318 (all lowercase).

Winner gets the Lose Cannon, our Style Invitational trophy. Second place receives a pair of big fat foamy brown bedroom slippers adorned with jolly-faced poop emoji, a prize that was inexplicably declined by the Week 1270 runner-up.

Other runners-up win our “You Gotta Play to Lose” Loser Mug or our “Whole Fools” Grocery Bag. Honorable mentions get one of our lusted-after Loser magnets, “We’ve Seen Better” or “IDiot Card.” First Offenders receive only a smelly tree-shaped air “freshener” (FirStink for their first ink).

Deadline is Monday night, Feb. 18; results published March 10 (online Thursday, March 7). See general contest rules and guidelines at wapo.st/InvRules. The headline “Droll Call” was submitted by both Kevin Dopart and Bill Dorner; William Kennard wrote the honorable-mentions subhead. The Style Conversational: The Empress’s weekly online column, published late Thursday afternoon, discusses each new contest and set of results. This week’s features a tribute to the peerless Mac Scanlan, who died this week, plus tips on writing long-form anagrams from our star ‘grammers. Especially if you plan to enter, check it out at wapo.st/styleconv.

DROLL CALL: THE ‘JOINT LEGISLATION’ OF WEEK 1314

Week 1314 was our biennial “joint legislation” contest to combine the names of new members of Congress as “co-sponsors.” Some of the entries below will require you to say them out loud, perhaps repeatedly. But believe me, they don’t compare with such Mrs. Incredible stretches as Omar-Harder-Lee-Lamb (Mary Had Little Lamb) or Pappas-Scott-Braun-Meuser-Case (Papa’s Got Brand New Suitcase). Yes, this contest was a bear to judge.

4th place:

The Hyde-Smith-Underwood Bill to guarantee the right to unmarked burials in national parks. (Steve Honley, Washington)

3rd place:

The Sherrill-Watkins-Scott resolution that younger siblings should get to play with the older kids’
And the winner of the Lose Cannon:

The Harder-Hern Act to make people speak up. (Bob Kruger, Rockville, Md.)

The Spano-Kim-Harder Act to appoint Stormy Daniels as Chief of Presidential Oversight. (Mark Raffman)

The Hayes-Wright-Tlaib ['leeb] resolution thanking Gen. Mattis for his service and apologizing for the PTSD he’s going to experience. (John McCooey, Rehoboth Beach, Del.) [he’s right to leave]

The Taylor-Torres Small-Johnson Act mandating that standards for molhels should be stricter than just “He’s probably pretty good with scissors.” (Gary Crockett, Chevy Chase, Md.; Noah Friedlander, Chicago, a First Offender)

The Spano-Van Drew-Johnson Declaration celebrating the years 1865-1869. (Steve Langer, Chevy Chase, Md.)

The Levin-Finkenauer Act to limit the number of whistle-blowing ex-Trump associates allowed to appear on MSNBC. (Jon Ketner, Cumberland, Md.) [fink-en-an-hour]

The Allred-Wright-Hern Act to reduce backups at stoplights. (John Hutchins, Silver Spring, Md.) [all-red right turn]

The Stauber-Wild-Lee Act to regulate shower safety at the Bates Motel. (Mark Raffman)

The Levin-Horsford-Haaland Act, a relief bill authorizing almost one dozen professionals to assist Amsterdam’s sex worker shortage. (Jon Ketner) [whores for Holland]

The Pence-Scott-Golden-Sinema Resolution calling for the vice president to hand over his rumored “25th Amendment stash” of Russian hotel tapes. (Kevin Dapor)

The Harder-Cox Resolution that everyone has to stop giggling, we have a serious resolution here. No, really guys, stop. (Ben Shouse, Silver Spring, Md.)

And Last: The Steil-Crow Declaration: Ha! I got ink! (J. Larry Schott, West Plains, Mo.)
